課程概述 Course Descriptions & 學習目標 Learning Objectives	This is a follow-up compulsory language training course for sophomores of English majors. It continues to hone students' listening comprehension and develop their speaking and presentation skills. In addition to strengthening students' command of academic English and story-telling through various aural-oral practices, the course aims to sharpen students' abilities in research and logical reasoning, broaden their cross-cultural perspectives, and enable them to engage more critically, inclusively, effectively, and innovatively in discussions of social and global issues in the digital age.
課程要求 Course Requirements	1. Students are required to attend the class regularly and are encouraged to participate in class discussions. 2. Attendance policy: ☒ Two points from the final grade will be deducted for each absence without an approved leave. ☒ Proof of leave must be submitted via the Student Leave Management System (學生請假系統) on the University's single sign-on portal (單一入口) within three working days. Emailing notice is not accepted ☒ The course allows up to four absences , regardless of any reason. A fifth absence will result in course failure. This policy applies to anyone who registers at the beginning of the term. If, for any reason, you are unable to attend the class during the first two weeks after the term begins, you are strongly advised to withdraw from the course. ☒ Being late to class may be considered an unexcused absence. 3. Students are required to complete their assignments independently. Plagiarism or unauthorized collaboration will lead to course failure. 4. Makeup midterm/final exams and individual talk will only be allowed with a valid proof of an excused absence due to unforeseen circumstances. 5. No make-up project group presentation.
