

Graduate Students Analytical Seminar

1. About Your Presentation

(a) Content

	Semester I	Semester II
M.S. (year 1)	One current research article related to your research	Review one research topic (not a review paper) related to your research
M.S. (year 2)	Literature review of your research area (not a review paper) + summary of your research	Preliminary review of your research
Ph.D. (year 1)	One current research article related to your research	Review one research topic (not a review paper) related to your research
Ph.D. (year 2)	One current research article not related to your research	Review one research topic not related to your research

- (b) Discuss your proposed topic with your instructor at least four weeks before your presentation. Please bring along all the related literatures during the discussion and have the topic approved at least three weeks before the presentation. At least one of your major references should be published within the recent three years. Hand in at least one major reference to your instructor.
- (c) Prepare an abstract at least one week before your presentation. The abstract should be distributed to your instructor and your classmates before the presentation.
- (d) Suggested timing: presentation (25~30 min), Q&A and comments (20~25 min).

2. Grading

Presentation: 60%

Abstract: 15%

Participation: 10% (Q&A and Discussions)

Attendance: 15%, including Departmental Seminar. (late, -1 for the second time and beyond; unjustified absence without excuse, -5; justified absence with excuse, -2 for the second and third time, -5 for the fourth time and beyond)