其他說明 Other description	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● 本課程為一學年之延續課程，修課學生「應」自行複習及回顧前一學期(高級會計學(一))之課程內容，以作為本學期課程之基礎。 ● Lecture and in-class discussion. ● Students are expected to regularly attend courses and to actively participate in class. If students are absent, it is the responsibility to contact a classmate to let the lecture obtain missed information. ● In order to maximize your learning and to receive credit for your classes, you must attend at least 80% of classes. Missing classes will impede your progress. ● The student is expected to treat the instructor and his/her classmates with respect. The course grade will be based on a mid-term examination, a final examination, and class presentation, assignments and class participation. Missed tests will count as zero unless the instructor authorizes absence in advance. ● My objective of grades evaluation is to treat all students fairly. To ascertain that students understand the material covered in each chapter, students have some quizzes, midterm exam and final exam. Attendance for scheduled exams or quizzes is mandatory. The exams and quizzes are intended to measure your command of the subject matter.
