課程概述 Course Descriptions	This course explores major works of English literature from the early medieval period through the late Middle Ages. Students will examine literary genres such as epic, romance, allegory, and religious writing, with a focus on historical context and cultural themes. Key texts may include Beowulf , Sir Gawain and the Green Knight , Arthurian romances, and selections from The Canterbury Tales . Film adaptations of a few literary works and several documentaries will be used to acquaint students with the historical, social, and cultural backgrounds of this period.
學習目標 Learning Objectives	1. To analyze literary texts in their historical and cultural contexts. 2. To identify key themes, genres, and motifs, such as chivalry, courtly love, heroism, and moral allegory. 3. To develop skills in close reading, critical thinking, and written communication through tests and presentations.
教科書及參考書 Textbooks and References	Textbooks are not required; relevant handouts will be distributed during class sessions.
