課程介紹與教學目標 Course Description and Objectives

Course Description: This course will provide selected readings of English and American novels written traversing a long period of time since the novel's most dominant era from the nineteenth century to the current day, by several fiction writers who have been celebrated as the great novelists in their respective literary periods. For the limit of time, only excerpts from 3 representative novels are chosen for our discussion. The novels selected for each novelist are in turn Mark Twain's Adventures of Huckleberry Finn, Charlotte Brönte's Jane Eyre, Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice.

Additionally, we will watch several filmic adaptations of novels. Students therefore shall pay attention to the difference between the original and the adapted ones, to the agenda of the director, as well as to the effects on the viewers/readers.

Course Objectives: The course is designed to train students to conduct close textual analysis and form critical perspectives with which to discuss the novels and their filmic representations.
